

This Valentine's Day, WTP launched a new fundraising campaign in honor of our 35th anniversary.

“High Five for WTP” celebrates WTP’s big 3-5 by asking members to contribute just $5 for each year that WTP has contributed to the success of your career.

Back in 1974 when our founding members started the Women and Theatre Program, there was no organization that brought together women with backgrounds in academia, theatre and activism. Over the last 35 years WTP has fostered the growth of feminist theatre research in the academy as well as the development of plays, panels, conferences, workshops and other feminist theatre activities.

For many members, WTP has provided opportunities to present papers, chair panels, stage productions and meet colleagues and mentors that they wouldn’t have had without this organization.

Would you be willing to give WTP a little love and donate $5 for every year that being a member of WTP has enriched your work? Our goal is to reach 100% membership participation by our precon in August 2009, when we’ll announce the campaign’s grand total.

In the meantime, please consider making a donation to WTP. Even if you’ve only been a member of WTP for a year or two, your $5 or $10 donation will make a difference in helping to keep WTP up and running. Your support will help WTP continue to fund unique events and awards like the annual WTP pre-conference and the Jane Chambers Playwriting Award.

Please make checks payable to Women and Theatre Program and send them to:

Aileen Hendricks, Treasurer
Dept. of Visual and Performing Arts
Southern Branch Post Office
Southern University
Baton Rouge, LA 70813.

We hope to have an online credit card payment option available soon. More information to come in the weeks ahead.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Emily Klein, the WTP Vice President of Outreach and Development at ebklein@andrew.cmu.edu.

Thanks for your consideration and your continuing support of WTP!
